

Peninsula Animal Aid Association Inc. is a registered charity based in Clontarf on the Redcliffe Peninsula (on the northside of Brisbane), it was established in 1971.

The animal shelter is staffed entirely by volunteers.

Animals available for adoption:

WOODFORD (or 'Woody') is a dear little 2 year old Terrier X. He has been loved by a family at one time and is very obedient.

Woody is a nice family dog that has been with children aged 10 years. He is such a loveable boy and worthy of a kind home.

BANJO is a 4 year old Staffy X Cattle with the most loveable nature. Banjo is beautiful on the lead and loves a cuddle!

He will be a lovely mate for the right family. He has lived with older children, although Banjo does not like small children.

ANGEL is a 12 month old light brown and cream female Tabby. Angel was dumped in council after hours cages with her 4 beautiful babies. She is a sweet little cat that is now looking for a quiet and loving home.

SASHA is a 12 month old beautiful long haired torti. She was bought to the shelter as a stray with her 3 teeny 10 day old babies.

Sasha is the most placid, affectionate and quiet little cat we have had at the shelter for quite a while. She loves a cuddle and a smooch. She deserves a loving forever home to call her own.
